

The Studio of Jerald Blackstock

is associated with the artist Jerald W. Blackstock, who has a diverse background in art and education:

Jerald Blackstock's work spans from traditional painting to digital art, with an emphasis on personal expression and critique of societal norms. His studio reflects his journey in art, both as a creator and educator, providing a platform for his artistic exploration and teaching. His current artistic research (since 2022 to present) focuses on fine art creation with video, animation, TV, clips for the web and social media.

Educational Background: Jerald Blackstock holds a diploma in Fine Art painting from the Alberta College of Art and Design and graduated with a Bachelor of Fine Arts from the Alberta University of the Arts, specializing in digital art studies with a minor in creative writing. He also holds a certificate in Adult Education from Mount Royal University and a certificate in Small Business Development from MKS Learning.

Artistic Career: Blackstock taught for a decade at Alberta University of the Arts and Mount Royal University. His business Blackstock Art&Design provides mobile education and critique services. He has been globally recognized for his work, his art and writings are available on platforms like Flickr, where he has shared 385 photos. His videos and animations can be found on Vimeo. He also has a presence on Medium, where he shares personal reflections and social satire. He is exhibited on Photographize in New York where only 1% of artists who apply are shown.

Art Sales and Products: He has written and self published 15 art and psychotherapy books available on Amazon and Google Books. His artwork and products are available for purchase through Fine Art America, offering various items like canvas prints, framed prints, and apparel.

Online Presence: Blackstock maintains a personal website and a Tumblr blog where he posts about his art, personal reflections, and insights into narcissism among other topics.